A. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

MOST PERFECT MADE.

From the Professor of Chemistry, California College of Pharmacy.

SAN FRANCISCO, JANUARY 24, 1889.

I have made a careful analysis of a sample of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder purchased by me in open market. The results of my analysis show that the Cream of Tartar used in its manufacture is pure, and that it does not contain any foreign substances, such as Alum, Ammonia, Lime or other impurities. I consider it to be pure and wholesome, and in every respect superior to all other articles.

Demands of the Farmers' Alliance of Georgia.

Three Murderers Executed.

By Associated Press.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 8.—The Executive Committee of the Georgia Farmers' Alliance has agreed upon the questions which all candidates for office, from bailiff to Congressmen, will be required to answer. They demand that the powers of the State Railroad Commissioners shall be enlarged, and that more control of the railroads be given to the State and Interstate Commissions. They demand that better common school facilities shall be afforded the children of the State poor, and work-houses for the indigent; that convicts be better treated and cared for, and that the able-bodied ones be made to work on the roads; the lowest possible tariff duties on all articles necessary to the farmers of the country, and that all candidates for office in Georgia shall place themselves squarely with the Alliance on this policy.

The Wily Mongolians.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Chu Fong and another Chinese accused lawyer S. R. Johnson of instructing them how to forge notes, under which several thousand dollars were fraudulently obtained. Chu Fong was indicted for forgery, and set this up in defense. Johnson sued the two Chinese firms for $100, the amount of one of Chu Fong's notes. This brought up the question of comparative veracity between Chinese and white men. Chief Justice McAdam of the City Court today decided the case in favor of Johnson and said the Chinese asked the Court to believe too much.

Although Bartholomew threatened to give the Sheriff trouble and fight to the last, he walked to the scaffold quietly, with a firm step. After all the arrangements were completed he declared himself innocent, and then began damning all his accusers, denouncing that Detective Johnson and his paramour, Mrs. Dillard, be also hung. His last words were mixed with violent oaths and blasphemous language.

WAYNESBURG (Pa.), April 9.—Zach Taylor was hanged here this morning for the murder of William McCausland of Alleghany. The murder was committed for the purpose of robbery. George Clarke, Taylor's brother-in-law, was executed a few weeks ago for participation in the same crime. On the scaffold he reiterated his innocence.

A Pinkey Stage Passenger.

SACRAMENTO, April 8.—On Saturday last William Cook, living in a cabin on the line dividing Mariposa and Merced counties, returned to his home after an absence of a few hours and found the door of his cabin broken down, and upon looking around found that there was something wrong with a can of fresh milk he had left upon his table. He then examined a piece of fresh meat and gave a piece to his cat, which she ate and died. Mr. Cook had a quarrel with a neighbor, who cut him badly, a few weeks ago. The man who did the cutting is out on $5,000 bail.

Another Neck Broken.

By Associated Press.

EBENSBURG, Pa., April 9.—Charles Carter (colored) was hanged here for the murder of John Matthews (also colored) in a house of ill-fame during a quarrel about a disreputable woman. The killing occurred on November 3, 1889.

Now Immigrants Are Examined.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Congressional Sub-committee on Immigration has opened its hearing here. Secretary Jackson of the Board of Immigration testified concerning the method of examining the immigrants. They pass single file before the Registers, by whom they are questioned as to age, destination, health, whether they have been a public charge or were convicted of crime, and the names of friends in this country. These statements are not made under oath, and a re-examination is ordered by the inspectors whenever the answers are not satisfactory. The largest number of immigrants ever landed in one day at Castle Garden was 1,000. About one out of six immigrants is rejected.

A Prohibition Convention.

Special to the GAZETTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The annual State Convention of the Prohibition party met here to-day. General Bidwell of Chico was elected chairman, and after the appointment of the committees a recess was taken.

A Broken Jaw.

EDGERTON (Kan.), April 8.—After one of the most hotly contested campaigns ever known here, the women's ticket was elected as follows: Mayor, Mrs. W. H. Kelly; Police Judge, Mrs. Thos. Greer; members of the Council, Mrs. S. E. Evert, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. Nat Ross and Mrs. Brown.

The Emperor Dined.

BERLIN, April 9.—Last evening the Emperor attended a dinner given in his honor by Herbert Bismarck. Among those present were Caprivi and twelve other ministers and generals.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

The Homer Index says: Candelaria has had an infusion of new life, and begins to bristle with activity. We need to be vaccinated with the same kind of virus, elixir, or whatever you may call it. But, after all, it is only brains and business capacity. Our mines are as good as anybody's, but the men who engineer them are not endowed with the proper snap and vim. They require an injection of hook-lightning to quicken their perception. There is ore enough in sight in Homer District to keep several well-equipped mills in constant operation, but, with the example before them of the presumed leading company puttering at a mine as a palsied old woman drags a sack, there is not much inducement for outsiders to come in.

The decision of the Columbian postal authorities to return all letters addressed to Aspinwall instead of Colon, which has been adopted as the official name of the place, is on a par with the proposed action of Mr. Cleveland's Postmaster-General to return or send to the Dead-letter Office all letters not addressed to State, county and town. Public opinion forced the abandonment of that position. It may not influence the Colombian Government, and Colon is beginning to be commonly used as the name of the town.

Rumor has it that the lottery men have engaged R. S. Messick and Wm. Woods of San Francisco to assist in the scheme, and that those gentlemen have given it as their opinion that the special election held a year ago was illegal. That being the case the amendment will probably be again submitted at the next general election. It is further understood that the lottery men are quietly working the thing into shape to submit, by getting men pledged to support the measure.

The report by Miss Cable of San Francisco of her missionary experience among the slave women of the Chinatown of that place would be a good document for Eastern circulation, now that an active effort is being made to beat the Chinese enumeration bill. It is not news in California, but it might give Eastern people and members of Congress some light upon the cause of California sentiment on this subject.

It is very comical to read that two Dutch petty larceny princes in their old age have a fist-fight over the proposition of the one that the other shall marry a plebeian woman with money in order to recuperate the exchequer of the royal house. Surely the nobility of the Old World are rapidly making the people realize that the hungry beggars should be stripped of their titles and turned out to earn an honest living.

Mr. SCHWEINFURTH, of Rockford, Ill., has taken a bad way to prove his divinity by attacking reporters as liars and denouncing them as "lost blackguards." There is occasionally bad editor, but the reporters are the cream of the earth. They do better and more honest work than any other class of mortals, and as a rule get less reward for it.

JOTTINGS.

Those looking for a first-class family resort are reminded that the Riverside Hotel is where they want to go.

Miss Emma Gibbs carries a full line of ladies and misses' corsets, genuine amber hairpins, and Fonteyne cuffs and collars.

J. J. Becker's Chicago saloon is a busy place about noon, made so by business men who go there for their midday lunches.

C. J. Brookins' candy factory continues to run six days in the week and is turning out as palatable sweets as can be had anywhere.

C. A. Thurston has a supply of San Francisco Evening, fifty page Sunday edition, a copy of which should be secured by everybody.

The way strangers steer for the Arcadia as soon as they reach the town shows that the fame of that popular resort has gone abroad.

The fame of the coffee kept by E. C. Leadbetter reaches far and near. People from adjoining towns say it is the best they ever tasted.

W. T. Craig's grocery trade continues to increase, the reason being that people will go where they can get the best goods for the least money. All orders promptly delivered.

The Blessing of Strong Nerves

Is recoverable, not by the use of mineral sedatives, but by a recourse of effectual tonic treatment. Opium and the like should only be used as auxiliaries, and then as sparingly as possible. Vigorous nerves are quiet ones, and the most direct way to render them so is to reinforce the vital energies. This stalwart, invigorant, honest, strong Bitter is the best and most all-sufficient for this purpose, since it entirely removes impediments to thorough digestion and assimilation of the food, so that the body may assimilate its nutriment, and consequently of stamina. Rheumatic tendencies and affections of the kidneys and bladder are also counteracted by this Bitter, which is a pleasant medicine, stimulant, infinitely purer than the raw extracts of commerce, which reacts injuriously upon the nervous system.

On a recent visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton of Luray, Russell Co., Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six year old boy, whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Compound Remedy; it having cured him of a very severe attack of cramps. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the Remedy. He says it has an excellent reputation in his vicinity; that farmers come fifteen miles to his store for it and that many of them, like himself, are never without it in their homes. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm Timmons, Postmaster of Ida, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitter has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman of some place, says: "Find the Electric Bitter to be the best Liver and Kidney medicine, made me feel like a new man."

J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town says: "Electric Bitter is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new life. Only get a bottle at Wm. Pinniger's drug store.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture, like perspiration causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile remedy, which acts directly on the skin, and removes the cause of the piles, Itching and effects a permanent cure. See Druggists or mail; treatise free. Dr. Bosanko, Piqua, O. Sold by S. J. Hodges, apothecary at Wm. Pinniger's drug store.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael's curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Wm. Pinniger's Drug Store, large bottles 50¢ each, and $1.00.

Mr. B. F. Masters, Cashier of

Emmett & Co.'s Bank at Waverly, Ohio, says: "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best I have ever used. After taking it for a week, I know of no benefit. I tried it and it quickly cured me, after years of suffering with an obstinate cough and throat trouble." 50 cent bottles for sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow, Seaside, Mont., says: "I have a Soothing Salve for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. It will overcome the most robust when the system craves for pure blood to furnish the elements of health and strength. The best remedy for purifying the blood is Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla.

The Wool Rate.

The Southern Pacific Company has given a special rate of $2 per 100 pounds on compressed wool from Reno to Philadelphia and Boston. Utah pays $2.10, Idaho and Oregon $2.25, and the Interstate Association would do no more for Nevada.

RENO'S LOSS.

Another Good Man of Reno Gone Wrong.

Pierce Evans leaves to-night to take up a permanent residence at Fairhaven, Washington, where he has already made large investments. Mr. Evans has resided here from boyhood, and has hewn his own path in life. He has accumulated a snug little fortune by strict attention to business and careful management, and is going to Fairhaven to better his condition. While he has an abiding faith in Reno, he is stuck on the great Northwest and has pitched his tent in that growing country for good. The GAZETTE wishes Pierce all the luck that can possibly attend a good rustler and far-sighted business man, and kindly recommends him to the good graces of Washington's business and social circles. What is Reno's loss in Fairhaven's gain. Since he has been up there he has identified himself with every movement tending to the development of that growing section, is President of the Chamber of Commerce, and is putting his best foot forward in everything he goes at. Mrs. Evans will shortly join her husband. Reno regrets losing so worthy a couple.

A DEMOCRATIC ARGUMENT.

On the Montana Senatorial Question.

A Washington dispatch of the 8th inst. says: Spooner concluded his argument on the Montana contested election cases in the Senate, and was followed by Pugh, who argued in favor of the minority report. Before he had spoken half an hour but two seats on the Republican side were occupied.

Rev. Peter Vanetten, convicted at Youngstown, Ohio, of embezzling $6,000 from a widow, was sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

Pugh not being well enough to continue the speech, the election cases were over for the day, and the anti-trust bill was taken up.

Voorhees sent to the clerk's desk and had read a telegram from Helena, Mont., stating that the Democrats elected the Mayor by 300 majority and the Republicans, who usually had a majority of 400 to 600, carried only one ward.

Every colored member of the Mississippi Legislature voted for a recent bill to appropriate $10,000 for the erection of a Confederate monument in that State.

The White Pine News says Ward is likely to look up again soon, as they contemplate putting a large force of men to work developing the Martin White mine.

A man of Saco, Maine, cut his initials in the peel of a Florida orange as it hung on its tree last winter. That same orange was one of a dozen he recently bought of a Saco dealer.

A GOOD COLT.

Commemoration Coming to the Front as a Post-Getter.

Wednesday, April 8, 1890.

EDITOR GAZETTE: As this is the season for spring fights, big fish stories and big colts, I think I can take the persimmon in the latter case. I weighed a colt when he was one year and three days old and he tipped the scales at eleven hundred and fifteen pounds, and stands fifteen and a half hands high. He was sired by my imported Cleveland bay stallion, Commemoration.

BIRD'S EGGS.

A Penalty for Taking Them From the Nests.

Section 1 of an Act approved March 6, 1879, makes it unlawful for any person, at any time, to kill or injure or to pursue with such intent, any sparrow, bluebird, blue-jay, martin, thrush, mocking-bird, swallow, red-breast, catbird, wren or humming bird, or to disturb the nest or eggs of said birds.

THE FRENCH NAVY.

Additions To Be Made in the Year 1891.

A correspondent writes: The French Minister of Marine has just made arrangements for the ship-building which is to take place in 1891, the total amount of credit to be asked for in the Budget of the Department, being about £2,320,000. The ships upon which the sum is to be spent, as well in Government as in private dock-yards, comprise 10 ironclads, 1 first and 2 second-class iron-clad cruisers, 2 torpedo gun-boats, 5 torpedo-boats, 1 iron-clad gunboat, 12 open sea-torpedo-boats and 35 first class torpedo-boats, 68 or 70 steamers, 6 iron-clad ironclads—the Neptune, the Brennus, the Trehornet and the Magenta—are in course of construction, and of the 6 new ones to be laid down 1 is to be named the Carnot. The first-class iron-clad cruiser, the Dupuy-de-Lome, is to be finished at the Brest Arsenal, while the first-class cruisers, the Alger and the Ialy, are to be finished at the same arsenal.

A BUSINESS WOMAN.

Mrs. Langtry's Money Making Qualifications.

George Keogh, manager for Mansfield, "I was manager for Lily Langtry when she made her debut and for some time after. Critics may differ about her ability to act, but there is no question among financiers and real estate men about her ability to know a bargain and turn a nimble penny. She has a natural talent for making money. When we were in Salt Lake City once she was standing in front of the hotel, turning to me she said: Call a cab. I believe I will go and look up some real estate bargains. I think this is a good town in which to invest. We were given a tract of land which pleased her. She halted the horse herself, jumped off, looked over the ground, and before night the title of that property was in Lily Langtry's name. The price paid was $20,000. The other day she was offered three times the purchase price. She has never lost a dollar in any investment she has made in this country."

THE PRESIDENT'S MISTAKE.

"When I was getting ready to come to England," says John C. New, "my tailor in Washington told me that I must surely wear spats (over gaiters), and he made a pair of white duck. I wore them, but by way of experiment, one day to the White House and I noticed as I sat talking to the people in the East Room that President Harrison eyed me askance. Presently he got up and beckoned me to come out, and when we got into the hall he whispered nervously: 'John, your spats are hanging below your pants!'"

DEATHLESS HOPE.

"Sweet Hope is dead," I moaned.
And I have lost her beyond my sight.
Hence is the brightness day.
Yet me is as the gloom of darkest night."
Yet even when I slept

A rift broke through the gloomy, clouded skies,
And Hope's glad face looked down upon my own.
With tender, loving eyes.

"My flower of Hope is gone!
The rude winds tore it from my tender hold;
In vain, with anxious eyes,
I searched my garden and the distant wild.
This morning while I walked
In pensiveness, though adown an humble street
I found my blossom in a true, sweet heart,
All dewy-fresh and sweet.

"My gem of Hope is lost!
I saw it sink beneath the billow's crest;
The pearl of my heart is gone.
She left me upon my happy breast."

"She left me upon my happy breast.
I found a casket hidden long ago—
I raised the lid, and lo! with luster bright,
My jewel, all aglow!

"Hope is dead? An, no!

She doth but vail her radiant face and form
As suits God's perfect will;

And though our souls seem dead to every joy,
Some faint hope liveth still.

Some faint hope liveth still.

I found a casket hidden long ago—
I raised the lid, and lo! with luster bright,
My jewel, all aglow!

"My flower of Hope is gone!

The rude winds tore it from my tender hold;
In vain, with anxious eyes,
I searched my garden and the distant wild.
This morning while I walked
In pensiveness, though adown an humble street
I found my blossom in a true, sweet heart,
All dewy-fresh and sweet.

"My gem of Hope is lost!

I saw it sink beneath the billow's crest;

The pearl of my heart is gone.

She left me upon my happy breast."
